

When Sins Have Been Forgiven

Hebrews 10:11-18
Pastor Caleb Yetton (caleb@trc.life)

Hebrews 10:11-18 And every priest stands daily at his service, offering repeatedly the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins. ¹² But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, He sat down at the right hand of God, ¹³ waiting from that time until His enemies should be made a footstool for His feet. ¹⁴ For by a single offering He has perfected for all time those who are being sanctified. ¹⁵ And the Holy Spirit also bears witness to us; for after saying, ¹⁶ “This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, declares the Lord: I will put My laws on their hearts, and write them on their minds,” ¹⁷ then He adds, “I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” ¹⁸ Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin.

1. Christ has _____ us and the Holy Spirit is _____ us.

2. God has _____ to not _____ our sin.

3. There's a _____ for us to do now.

Discussion Questions:

- 1. What was your biggest takeaway from this teaching?
- 2. Tell about a time you participated in a seemingly meaningless task.
- 3. Christian, how does your complete justification affect your view of your sanctification?
- 4. How does God no longer remembering your sin change your feeling of a guilty conscience?
- 5. How does God no longer remembering your sin change how you view those who have sinned against you?
- 6. Have you been living out Jesus' better work for your life? If not, what will it take for you to begin?
