

SEX

Society is saturated with sexual themes and sexual images. Sex sells — almost everything. The world has embraced a view of sexuality that is rebellious and apart from God. The truth is that God thought of sex first, and He created it to be holy and uniting between a husband and wife.

WHY WAIT?

A common deception: “This is the person I am going to marry anyway, so the rules against premarital sex don’t necessarily apply.” We need to understand that God is very clear about restraining from premarital sex because there are natural consequences to that sin.

“Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows.” — Galatians 6:7

1. Your relationship should NOT be built on _____.

“Do not rebuke an older man harshly, but exhort him as if he were your father. Treat younger men as brothers, older women as mothers, and younger women as sisters, with absolute purity.” — 1 Timothy 5:1-2

2. The Bible teaches that we are not to engage in premarital relations, which is considered _____ or sexual immorality. If you don’t marry that person, then they could potentially be someone else’s spouse.

“Flee from sexual immorality. All other sins a man commits are outside his body, but he who sins sexually sins against his own body.” — 1 Corinthians 6:18

3. Paul speaks out strongly against sex outside of marriage in many of his letters:
1 Corinthians 6:9-20; Galatians 5:19-21; Ephesians 5:3-12

4. Joseph _____ from sexual immorality (Genesis 39:7-12). His master’s wife tried to seduce him on many occasions, but Joseph refused each time saying,

“How could I do this great evil, and sin against God?” — Genesis 39:9b

Benefits of waiting until marriage:

1. No _____.
 - a. Not waiting will create guilt that will hamper your relationships with God, your sexual partner, and with everyone else.
2. No _____.
 - a. Waiting ensures that you will never have to be afraid, not even to the extent of one fleeting thought, of having a sexually transmittable disease, or an unexpected pregnancy.
3. No _____.
 - a. Waiting ensures that you will never fall into the devastating trap of comparing your spouse’s sexual performance with that of a previous sexual partner.
4. Spiritual _____.
 - a. Waiting will help you subject your physical drives to the lordship of Christ, and thereby develop your self-control, an important fruit of the Holy Spirit.

5. Greater _____.

 - a. Waiting ensures that there is something saved for your marriage relationship.
 - b. The anticipation of the fulfillment of your relationship in sexual oneness and unity is exciting.

6. No seeds of _____.

Not waiting until marriage develops a pattern of weakness to circumstances in your life. That pattern may spread to all areas of your marriage.

God's design:

1. Godly Sexual Fulfillment
 - a. Embrace _____ toward sex with your mate. God's truth, not our past or our culture, must determine our view of sex.

"Marriage should be honored by all, and the marriage bed kept pure, for God will judge the adulterer and all the sexually immoral." — Hebrews 13:4

- i. Since God created it for the marriage relationship, within that relationship He sees it as _____.
 1. The world sees it only as pleasure, which is basically lust.
 2. God created sex for procreation, for expressing unity and oneness, and for pleasure. If you think otherwise, you must adjust your attitude.
- ii. View sex as _____.

"It is God's will that you should be sanctified: that you should avoid sexual immorality; that each of you should learn to control his own body in a way that is holy and honorable, not in passionate lust like the heathen, who do not know God; and that in this matter no one should wrong his brother or take advantage of him. The Lord will punish men for all such sins, as we have already told you and warned you. For God did not call us to be impure, but to live a holy life. Therefore, he who rejects this instruction does not reject man but God, who gives you His Holy Spirit." — 1 Thessalonians 4:3-8

1. Sex is to be shared only between a husband and a wife. God will not bless sexual thoughts, words, or actions outside of this relationship.
2. The eroticism and unity that naturally stem from the sacredness of the marriage relationship are more factors that will help it last.
- iii. _____ in marriage does not come from great sex.

"Make me walk along the path of your commands, for that is where my happiness is found." — Psalm 119:35

1. While sexual activity is to be enjoyed, it is important to remember that sex, like every other area of life, can never fully satisfy us. Sex is a part of God's plan for our marriage, and ultimately our expectations for fulfillment and satisfaction are placed on Him and His blessing as we follow His Word.

2. A good long-term sex life will never come from satisfying the lusts of the flesh, but from honoring God and our spouse in all that we do.

b. Avoid _____.

“Do not deprive one another, except perhaps by agreement for a limited time, that you may devote yourselves to prayer; but then come together again, so that Satan may not tempt you because of your lack of self-control.”

— I Corinthians 7:5

- i. When a man and a woman get married they become one flesh. They give up

Exclusive _____ to their own body.

“For the wife does not have authority over her own body, but the husband does. Likewise the husband does not have authority over his own body, but the wife does.” — I Corinthians 7:4

- ii. Differences between men and women can create problems in our physical relationship:

1. Generally, men tend to focus _____ on sex. They tend to lack self-control as well as sensitivity to their mate.

2. Generally, women tend to have a _____ focus on sex and thus may lack responsiveness to their husband.

- iii. Demanding our mate to be the way we want them to be is _____.

“Don’t be selfish; don’t try to impress others. Be humble, thinking of others as better than yourselves.” — Phillipians 2:3 (NLT)

- iv. We need to be _____-centered and more concerned about our mate than ourselves.

- v. A spouse should neither _____ sex nor _____ it. It is a responsibility. Husband and wife should be sensitive to one another’s needs and desires.

- c. Strive to become more _____ in your relationship. A healthy sex life results from an overall intimate relationship. Pursue companionship. Refrain from becoming too busy. Sex is an extension of your intimacy.

- d. _____ about what you like and don’t like. Overcome feelings of inferiority or embarrassment by getting stuff out in the open.

BIRTH CONTROL

Choosing a method of birth control is a very serious decision, one that needs communication, prayer, and knowing all the facts about each method. There are several things that you need to consider while making this decision — the method’s effectiveness, how well it suits your lifestyle and sexual patterns, the health risks, the cost, and if it involves the implantation of a fertilized egg. When an egg is fertilized, a new life begins. If implantation in the uterine wall is prevented, the egg (and new life) will die.

Each method has pros and cons. Become fully informed on these things, discuss them with each other, and discuss them with your doctor.

The following table gives some very general information on different methods of birth control. The effectiveness guideline is generalized and not a guarantee, because each couple is different and effectiveness depends on proper use.

Of course, everything may appear to be fine, but you might not get pregnant. Infertility is always a difficult struggle and should also be discussed together.
