

The Good News Series (III)
Our Father has Saved Us!

Discussion Questions

1. How is it possible for God to be good and at the same time judge all men? Does every person deserve a punishing judgment from God?
2. What does Ephesians 2:3 mean when it says that by nature we are children of wrath? How does this fit with the common cultural concept of human life?
3. What characteristic of God does He want us to be most confident about?
4. If someone asked you to explain why Jesus' death meant they can be forgiven, what would you say?
5. Why is Jesus the second Adam?
6. If you are a Christian, do you struggle with acting or thinking as if you are not righteous before God? What is the result? How can truths from this message help you?